This study will meet each Tuesday, ending April 12th. No book is necessary, but it will be beneficial to bring your Bible and come having already read the passage for the week. PRAYER SHAWL MINISTRY ~ Do the words 'prayer shawl' conjure up images of items placed around the shoulders, intended for bodily warmth and comfort, that are often knit or crocheted? Our Prayer Shawl Ministry is NOT only about shawls. It can also be about baby blankets, scarves, hats, or even lap robes. The purpose of the ministry is to share with others the warmth and love from your hands and heart, no matter the name of the finished item. The PSM (Prayer Shawl Ministry) welcomes crafters of all varieties willing to share their talents through gifts of love. You can work from home or join crafters on the 2nd and 4th Wednesday each month in the Covert Room, at 10:00 AM, through June. If you need a ride or have finished items to be picked up, please email sticksnpins@verizon.net or call Coralee Wenzel 814-723-3667.

“Walking With Jesus”

Tuesday Evening Soup and Study with Dr. Hecht

Lent challenges us and calls us to deeper involvement in matters of faith. This year you are invited to take a spiritual journey and walk with Jesus to and through the cross, encountering along the way such diverse personalities as Zacchaeus, Judas Iscariot, Pontius Pilate, and Mary Magdalene.

No book is necessary but it will be beneficial to bring your Bible and come having already read the passage for the week.
